So, have you thought more about getting a car?

Yeah, I'm definitely interested! I'm thinking around $10,000.

That's a solid budget. Any specific models you're looking at?

I've been researching Honda Civics and Toyota Corollas.

Great choices! They're both reliable and have good resale value.

I'll check their reviews and maintenance records, too.

Good idea! Also, consider the insurance costs.

Right, I'll keep that in mind. Should I take you along for test drives?

I'd love to help! It'll be a good learning experience.

Thanks, Dad! Your support means a lot.

Anytime! I'm proud of you for taking this step.

Ok Dad, good night.....
